IRELAND INTERESTED IN FAIR. Dublin Merchant Makes Inquiries Here About 1903 Event.

P. Hoctor of Dublin Ireland who to this country representing a London and Edinburgh firm of distillers, is visiting friends in this city. Mr. Hoctor says that the merchants and manufacturers of Great Britain are exhibiting an increasing in-terest in the World's Fair. The linen and lace industry of Ireland, which finds a lace industry of Ireland, which finds a good market in the United States, will have an extensive exhibit here. He says he has been commissioned by the distillers of Great Britain to obtain all information as to transportation facilities, freight rates, space for exhibits, in connection with the World's Fair, to guide them in their future plans.

space for exhibits, in connection with the World's Fair, to guide them in their future plans.

Speaking of the Irish political situation, Mr. Hoctor, who is an Independent Nationalist leader, said: "To those who recognize that the British Parliament is the only place to settle the Irish question, it makes little difference as to what class of Irishmen are willing to become members of the parliamentary party. There are plenty of men as advanced in the principles of the Parliamentary party policy and as sound on the question of home rule as the major portion of the Redmonite party. They are for more intellectual and financially able to sustain a party representative in Parliament, and would be willing to undertake the responsibility of serving the agricultural and mercantile interests of the country. This being the case, it obviates the necessity of appealing to the Irish people at home and in America for assistance, while raising the Irish standard to a higher limit in the House of Commons, and proving to the English people that the Irish are self-reliant and determined.

"Were it not that from '88 to the present the independent manhood of Ireland has ever kept to the forefront the demand for freedom, the influence of all parliamentary parties would have submerged the national idea, and English influence would dominate the country. They have always been held in check by the advanced party, who hold that under present conditions, or, at least, until Ireland has abandoned all hope of independence, parliamentary action will not be recognized by the Irish people as a whole."

Mr. Hoctor says the independent thought whole."

Mr. Hoctor says the independent thought of Ireland was never in healthier condition. The revival of the use of the Gaelic tongues is becoming almost universal. His party, he says, will not be satisfied with home rule. It desires absolute independence for Ireland.

United States District Attorney Rozier said that the Federal authorities have decided to allow the criminal authorities of Montana, where the penalty for train robbery is death, to prosecute the prisoner. Mr. Rozier said that he will, however, endeavor to prove, at the weman's trial, Rose's complicity in the forgery of the bank notes and his guilty knowledge of their having been stolen, so that in the improbable event of his acquittal on the graver charge, he can be prosecuted in the Federal courts. The maximum penalty for the offense charged against the woman is fifteen years in the Penitentiary.

PRISONER IS NOT HARVEY LOGAN

It developed yesterday that the prison Rose, alias Arnold, is not Harvey Logan, although Chief Desmond was at first al nost certain he was.

Superintendent Schumacher of Pinkerton' Chicago agency, who arrived yesterday morning, and who knows Logan well, says he is not Logan. He says he knows the ma under arrest, and will be able to implicate him in the robbery, but declines at present to divulge his name or past record. He says Logan is not as tall as the prisoner, and has dark-brown hair. The prisoner's hair is black, like his mustache, but both are Service Agent John E. Murphy, Murphy sea chemist, who said it had been dyed. Yesterday Chief Desmond made arrangement with a local hair-dresser to call at the Four Courts and shampoo the prisoner's hair, to restore it to its original color, as further aid in identifying him. The experi-

BELIEVE HE IS HARRY LONGBATCH.

It further developed, at a conference be-tween Chief Desmond. Agent Murphy and Superintendent Schumacher, that Rose is believed to be Harry Longbaugh. In the ried examinations of the prisoners, the im pression was mistakenly conveyed that Harry Longbaugh was an alias of Harvey Logan, when, as a matter of fact, they are cers in their view that Rose is in reality Lorgbaugh is a statement made by the woman yesterday. She said that when she was introduced to Rose in Fort Worth a month age by Bill Cheney they went to live in Hite's flats under the name of Cun nirgham. One day she found in his coa a pocket dictionary, or, the fly leaf of whice was written the name "Harry Longue baugh." She asked him if that was anothe of his names, and he replied evasively The dictionary is now in Desmond's pos-session, and the handwriting of the name on the fly-leaf is similar to that of Rose.

grandparents very well when he lived in Knickerbocker, Tex., ten years ago. said E. B. Tyler, her grandfather, is now living in Douglas, Ariz.

This confirmation of the woman's statement, made Wednesday night to Chief concerning her knowledge of and connec tion with the prisoner Rose. Her story now is, in substance, that she was born in Arkansas twenty-five years ago, and never knew her parents, who separated in her infancy. She went to live with her grandparents in Knickerbocker, Tex., and there became acquainted with Bill Carver, the Ketchum boys, Kilpatrick and other boys, who took to train robbing and murder as a livelihood. She became Carver's mistress, and, after he and Kilbatrick were killed in April last in Texas after a train robbery, Bill Cheney introduced her in Fort Worth to John Rose, with whom she went to live under the name of Cunningham. Rose does not know. He gave her all the money she required. She forged Agnatures to such exchange. They went from Fort Worth to Het Springs, then to Memphis, and, after a few days' stop, they came direct to St. Louis. She says they did not stop in Nashville

RESISTS SWEATING. Chief Desmond put in another wearisom day "sweating" Rose. He might as well have questioned the Sphynx. Superintendent Schumacher of the Pinkerton agency also tried his blandishments on him, an when he retired with a wearled look his bump of conceit had become a yawning depression. The prisoner exuded silence and noninformation at every pore, and the amount of knowledge of his antecedents volumes it would bankrupt Carnegie to them. He said less in more tim than a Republican campaign orator. He was impervious to the volley of questions hurled at him as a Republican organ to the truth about the State finances. Chief Desmond, disappointed, but not disheartened laid him away at midnight like an uncut volume of Browning.

The Chief has sent a man to Texas ook up the career of Laura Bullion and to pick up the trail of Rose from the time he reached Fort Worth and follow it back as far as possible. He will hold Rose unti an officer from Wagner arrives here.

CARTER EXPECTS VINDICATION.

Former Army Officer Delighted That He Is to Have Civil Trial.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Leavenworth, Kas., Nov. 7.-Number 2094 is to-day the happiest convict in the Federal prison. No. 334 is Oberlin M. Carter. The full meaning of the fact that he is to have a new trial by a court of civil procedure appears to have come to the late Captain to-day. His step was more buoyant and there was something of the old easy swing of the army officer as he walked across the prison yard. He sees in the near future his reinstatement in the army, the rehabilitation of his name and his restoration to his former friends and haunts. "It means everything a man might desire or wish for in this world," he said, "It gives me a chance to clear myself and that is all that I have sought or wished. GLOBE'S FIGURES ARE WORTHLESS.

Governor Dockery Specifically Takes Up the Three Assertions and Demolishes Them.

ABSURD SYSTEM OF AVERAGES

Interest Overcalculated for Some Periods and Undercalculated for Others-Important Items Overlooked.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Jefferson City, Nov. 7 .- To-day Governor Dockery forwarded to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat a letter in which he analytically replies to the three charges of that paper as to overpayments in State debt transact tions. Following is the full text of the let-

To the Editor of the Globe-Democrat. Executive Department, State of Missouri,

City of Jefferson, August 14, 1901. The Globe-Democrat has repeatedly reiterated three charges against Democratic State administrations. These charges, you ascert, are based upon the "careful search of an expert," whose name is not given, but whose standing as an expert is indorsed by your paper. The Globe-Democrat, therefore, assumes the responsibility for the following counts in the indictment which it prefers against the Democratic management of State affairs:

First. of $44,432,114 during the last thirty years to pay interest and reduce the debt from $20,889,900 to $6,289,839.42. This charge is specifically made in one of your issues in the following language: "Democratic management in this State car be judged by the fact that $44,000,000 has been spent in reducing the State debt of $20,000,000 to $5,000,000,"

Second: The overpayment of the bonded lebt in the sum of $1,000,671.60. Third: The overpayment of interest on the bonded debt in the sum of 31.273 130 All these are grave charges. If true, they establish corruption or incompetency, or both, on the part of Democratic administrations. If false, it is unnecessary to com-ment. The people will do that. Now, to the facts as shown by the records; The obvious effect of the statement, that the Democratic party has used $41,000,000 to reduce the debt and interest from $20,600,. 000, to $6,000,000 is to mislead and con fuse the people. If you intend to include the interest as a part of the public debt, then candor and mmon fairness require that the amoun of such interest should be added to the bonded debt, and the reduction shown, not bonded debt, and the reduction shown, not simply from the amount of the bonded debt at the beginning of this thirty-year period, but from the aggregate amount of both the bonded debt and interest. The books show that $48.01,301.58 (including proceeds from sale of $5,250.000 refunded bonds and money in transit to pay bonds and interest) have been expended to reduce the bonded debt, to pay interest, premiums on bonds, and incidental expenses connected therewith, from January 1. ses connected therewith, from January 1871, to December 31, 1900. The facts, there fore, required your paper to say that the Democratic party had used $43,03,03,53 of money, to reduce the bonded debt, to pay interest, premiums on bonds and expenses incident thereto, and that the application of this amount fixing all the says that of this amount (taking also into account the bonds exchanged for certificates and ex-cluding $7,000,000 refunded bonds) had re-duced the debt, not as you allege, "from $20,000,000 to $8,000,000," but from $57,324,871 to $6,280,839,42 Such a statement would have been parmony with the debt statements of Republican State administrations from 1865 to 1871. In order to show a reduction of the public debt during that period of $14,740,908. the Republican administrations included $5. A warrant charging Laura Bullion with had at that time a great bundle of the forgery in having signed to the stolen banknotes, the exact amount she The reduction of interest on other indebtedness. The reduction of the bonded debt proper during that time was only $7.857,000 and that reduction was largely made by the use of the proceeds of the sales of the State's liene upon the railroads of the State.

It is unnecessary for me at this point to It is unnecessary for me at this point to give the items constituting the total pay-ments of interest and bonds, premiums and other expenses, as they appear in detail in my answer to the second and third counts of the Globe-Democrat's indictment. It is also unnecessary to note the grotesque error made by the Globe-Demo-crat in including the school fund certificates of 14 30 189 43 as "receipt" to cancel the of $4,383,839.42 as a "receipt" to cancel the State debt, while at the same time by it own exhibit it remains as a part of the debt. The attempt to make the school fund certificates appear in the dual role of a receipt and a debt, at one and the same time, is an anomaly in bookkeeping.

Replying to the second charge of the over-payment of $1,000.671 on account of bonds, will say that the table of the Globe-Democrat is inaccurate and incomplete. The following is a correct exhibit of the receipt and disbursements during the last thirty years on account of bond redemptions

The tables you have submitted in the attempt to establish an overpayment of $1.73,129 of interest on the bonded debt are grossly in error.

You have failed to note expenditures amounting to $435,290 on account of interest on school and seminary moneys, paid by the Fund Commissioners and from the interest fund; and the warrant of $185,790 drawn in 1835-39. The error in respect to the warrant is a legitimate one, because during that period this warrant was drawn to pay the interest on the school moneys, instead of making the payment by "transfer," as had therefore been the custom.

The Globe-Democrat's statement of the "interest earned" on bonds i sharply at variance with the facts. This condition might reasonably be anticipated, inasmuch as your estimate as to the true interest earned was ascertained by a system of "averages." This is a new departure in the accurate computation of interest. Business men will agree that an attempt to compute interest on an "average basis" would likely be inaccurate. The facts are that you have undercalculated the interest for certain periods by $450,55.55 and overcalculated the interest during certain other periods by $260,844.25. In other words, you have made the net error of $752,643.29 in computing the interest earned by the bonds.

interest during certain other periods by $206,84.25. In other words, you have made the net error of $562,65.29 in computing the interest earned by the bonds.

It affords me pleasure, therefore, to say to the people that the Globe-Democrat is positively in error when it states that there has been an overpayment, either of bonds or of interest.

The errors of your paper in part result from failing to survey the entire fiscal field. You have limited the scope of your investigation to the reports of State Auditors, when your "expert accountant" must have known that the Auditor's reports do not include the accounts of either the Fund Commissioners or of the banks in New York, who at various times have acted as the State's fiscal agents.

An expert, however competent, could not possibly make a complete statement of the bonds redeemed and interest paid without an examination of the accounts of the Fund Commissioners and the statements of the banks which have disbursed our Fund Commissioners and the statements of the banks which have disbursed our moneys.

The State Auditors' reports show the amounts received and disbursed from the Treasury through the interest and sinking funds; but these reports do not include all of the State's financial transactions. This must be apparent to the merest tyro in bookkeeping. However, when the accounts of the interest fund, the sinking fund, the Fund Commissioners and the State's fiscal agents in New York have all been assembled every dollar of money received and disbursed through these various agencies is properly accounted for.

After a most thorough investigation of the books by the State Auditor, covering the long period in contention, which was supplemented by a searching investigation on the part of experts of known integrity and recognized ability, there is not to be found the slightest evidence to sustain the charges which your paper has so persistently brought against the Democratic management of the financial affairs of this State.

Elwood, professor in sociology at the Missouri State University, makes public today the result of his observations, together with those of his class, upon the State Insane Asylum at Fulton. They visited that institution for the purpose of studying its methods.

The criticisms made by Doctor Elwood department of science and his promin in reform and prison work. He says the in-stitution was found to be in most excellent condition. Under Doctor Ray's able superintendency, it has been raised to the max intendency, it has been raised to the maximum of efficiency.

The few criticisms which the class could pass upon the institution were in no way due to faults of his management. "One of the most sections of these criticisms was," says Doctor Elwood, "that the institution was found to contain a large number of criminal insane recently brought from the State Penitentiary at Jefferson City, many of whom were hardened criminals and even notorious jailbreakers. To prevent the escape of these, mechanical restraint has to cape of these, mechanical restraint has to be constantly employed, though it is rarely used in the case of the other patients. These criminal insane are furthermore scattered among the respectable inmates for whom the presence of such a class is certainly a hardship. Missouri needs, and should have, like other progressive States, a separate institution for the criminal in

Cannot He Isolated.

"Another fact which is also to be regretted is the presence of a large number of epileptics in the institution. On account of a lack of a sufficient number of attendants these cannot be isolated and cared for in a ward by themselves, but are also found eattered among the other patients, whom they necessarily, more or less, disturb.

"The presence of a large number of feeble-minded persons, both idiots and imbeclies, gives ground for another criticism. It is to be hoped that it will not be long before Missouri will have special institutions for adults of these classes. The removals of the three classes—the criminal insune, the policytic and the feeble-minded—from the institution would give more room, which is much needed.

could be easily removed were the merit system in force in this State in the appointment of all the employes in institutions, and that is the lack of a training school for attendants or nurses. The proper care of the insane is a fine art, and no one should be appointed to the position of an attendant unless he has completed a thorough course in some training school. Were the graduates of such training schools assured of positions by the merit system of appointment the maintenance of such a school with a large number of students in connection with each State hospital for the insans would be comparatively easy."

Doctor Elwood is to deliver one of the addresses before the National Prison Association that meets in Kansas City next Wednesday.

120,000 Starving There are 120,000 hairs on an average head, - on your head. How many of these have you lost since yesterday? Since a year ago? How long do you calculate it will be before you will have thin hair, or no hair at all? Better feed your hair and make it stronger and more vigorous. There's only one genuine hair-food, Ayer's Hair Vigor. It stops falling of the hair, makes the hair grow, and always restores color to gray hair.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a great many years and always with most satisfactory results. I have recommended it to a great many of my friends, and they all say they are satisfied with it, too. We don't think you claim any too much for it." — Mrs. A. EDWARDS, San Francisco, Cal. St.00. All drugglats,
